

LEARNINGEXPRESS LIBRARY CAN HELP!

SEPTEMBER 10, 2014

The San Juan Island Library is pleased to offer LearningExpress Library, a free resource for skill building, test prep, career certification, and more.

Want to take a practice test for the SAT? Try LearningExpress Library. Studying for a Commercial Driver's License or getting ready to join the military? Check out LearningExpress Library. It can even help with preparing for your US citizenship test or getting a Green Card.

LearningExpress Library includes a College Prep Center, Career Center, Recursos para Hispanohablantes, and more. Here are some ways it can help:

Build your skills in reading, writing, math, science, and social studies. Prepare for high school, college, or graduate school exams, such as the GED, GED en Español, SAT, ACT, and GMAT. Study for an occupational exam in emergency medical services, firefighting, teaching, culinary arts and more.

Let LearningExpress Library help you achieve your goals today. It's free & easy to use, so grab your library card and start here: <http://www.sjlib.org/xtras/lcl-intro-splash.html>. Clicking on the "Register" button will let you browse the offerings before setting up a free account that keeps track of your progress.

Questions? Comments? Let us know how we can assist you. Call the Library at 360-378-2798 or email us at sjlib@sjlib.org.
