

January Events at the San Juan Island Library

Know Your Islanders: Nancy DeVaux and Carolyn Hudson

Mon. Jan 6 at 7 pm

Nancy DeVaux and Carolyn Hudson will share photos and stories about their travels last March. They and 10 others teamed up with former islander Barbara Ludwig and their Nepalese friends Gopi and Ranju for a service project in a rural village and a trip across Nepal and Bhutan.

Rock Day/Distaff Day

Tuesday, January 7 from 11- 3 pm

In Medieval days, Rock Day or Distaff Day was the traditional day for women to resume their spinning following the Christmas celebrations. Come sit around the fireplace and watch as spinners from our community use a variety of spindles, wheels and methods to turn fleece into fiber. There will be a demonstration at 12 noon and a chance to try out some of the wheels yourself! All spinners welcome to join in!

Open Mic for Writers

Sat. Jan. 11 at 7 pm

Held on the second Saturday of the month, Open Mic Night is for anyone interested in writing. Don't be shy, come read your work or just listen. For more information please contact Pam Herber-pjherber@interisland.net.

Mullis Center Book Club reads Where'd You Go, Bernadette

Mon. Jan. 13 at 1:15 pm

Mullis Center.

The Mullis Center Book Club reads Where'd You Go, Bernadette. Read the book and come participate in a discussion about the book moderated by librarian Beth Helstien. Open to the public. Next meeting and title: February 10: Bel Canto by Ann Patchett.

Lynda Mapes: Mother Orca Tahlequah: the Whale Who Changed the Conversation

Wed. Jan. 15 at 7 pm

San Juan Island Grange Hall, free.

The story in the Seattle Times of mother orca Tahlequah and her swim with her calf drew six million page views. Join Lynda Mapes, environmental reporter, for a conversation about the award-winning in-depth Seattle Times series, Hostile Waters.

Memory Café: The Spuds play traditional string band tunes

Tues. Jan. 21 at 2 pm

Enjoy the mellow sound of traditional string band tunes with The Spuds. Memory Café is for all islanders who want to enjoy music during the daytime and is a welcoming place for people with memory issues and their care partners.

Managing Digital Photos

Fri. Jan. 24 and 31 at 1 pm

Register to learn how to safely store, share and organize your precious digital photos. We'll cover how to share photos from a phone or camera to the cloud or a computer, best practices for storage including cloud storage and external backups.

Great Decisions: Climate Change and the Global Order

Mon. Jan. 27 at 7 pm

Come join moderator Roger Morris at the first in a series of Great Decision lectures, Climate Change and the Global Order.

Science Fiction Movie Club

Fri. Jan. 31 at 6:30 pm

January Movie: Pitch Black!

Held on the last Friday of the month, we will watch and discuss all things sci-fi. For 14 years and older.

Unless stated otherwise all events are held at the Library, free of charge.

Discover Life's Possibilities

1010 Guard St

Friday Harbor, Washington 98250 | (360) 378-2798

www.sjlib.org