

message from the Director

“What’s happening with the Library’s building plans?” is a question we’re hearing often at the Library and around the community.

O’Connor Construction Management, Inc. (OCMI) is acting as owner’s representative on the new library project. OCMI has been assisting the Library’s Board of Trustees in considering properties in and around town, building a list of viable options. Next we’ll have feasibility studies done on the preferred sites. The results will help inform the board’s final decision in identifying an optimal site for a new library building.

The goal of the new Library is to expand space for services and collections, and fill and anticipate current and future needs of a modern community. From pre-school literacy to teen activities, from technology to guest speakers, the Library is central to keeping our community connected. We envision a library that will serve the changing needs of this community for decades to come.

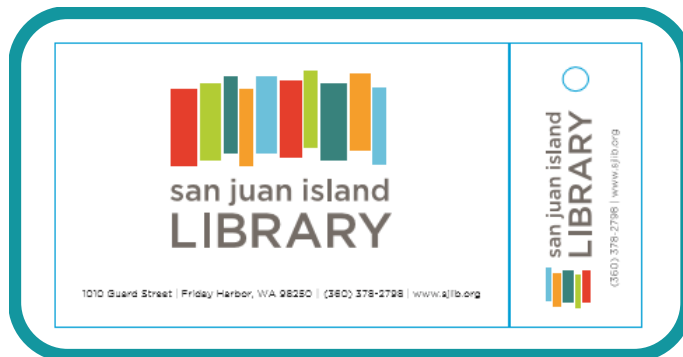

Stay tuned for more updates as we go forward. There will be opportunities for community involvement in the coming months.

In the meantime, we’re using our new library logo in more of our materials. How do you feel about the new logo? What might it mean to you? For me it represents people, a diverse community, technology, books, audiobooks, movies, steps, a pathway, musical keys, a fresh new outlook, a bright beginning. Tell us what you see; we want to know.

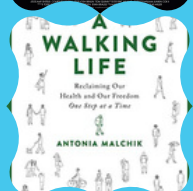

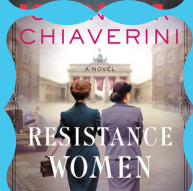

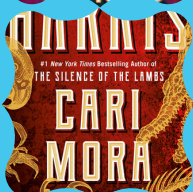

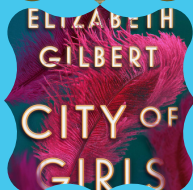

If you haven’t gotten a library card with the new logo, stop by and exchange yours for free.

The San Juan Island Library, along with the Lopez and Orcas libraries and the San Juan Island National Monument, received a San Juan County Lodging Tax Grant to support a four-part Coast Salish Speaker Series focusing on connecting current residents and visitors to the San Juan Islands with the Native history of this region. The first of these speakers, Saanich activist, storyteller, and musician Paul 'Che oke ten' Wagner presented on Saturday, March 30th. The next speakers will be US Army veteran, violinist, storyteller, and member of the Lummi Nation, Swil Kanim, at 7 pm on Friday, May 17th and Lummi Elder William John X'welwelat'se in June.

The ever-popular Know Your Islanders talks continue to explore trails and traveling on the first Monday of the month. This year we've experienced such diverse destinations as Mont Blanc, Designing Hawaii, and the Sea as Inspiration for Art and Science. Just ahead on the trail: Paul Walsh, Space Case: Travels to Space (Monday, June 3rd).

Ready for a walk on the Wild Side? Learn about the Island Marble Butterfly with Jenny Shrum (Wednesday, June 12th), local berries with Thor Hanson, (Wednesday, July 10), and island reptiles and amphibians with Christian Oldham (Wednesday, July 17th).

We've already had a broad miscellany of events this year: San Juan Historical Museum's Show and Tell; Illustrating Children's Books; Humanity Washington Speaker Tessa Hulls' 'She Traveled Solo'; and even an inflatable Planetarium!

There was a workshop on Self-Publishing in February and another on Memoir Writing in May, and two melodious pop-ups: St. Valentine's Day with the Island Chordsmen Plus and St. Patrick's Day with Mike Cohen.

Stay tuned for two wonderful genealogy events: author Candace Wellman's workshop on researching cross-cultural marriages (Wednesday, June 26); and a 3-part workshop on researching your family history with genealogist Robin Jacobson in November.

Please check our website for more about our exciting upcoming events!

SUMMER INTERNS

Have you ever wondered who that high school student is sitting at the Children's Desk during the summer months? Most likely it's one of our Summer Reading Program interns. Each summer the Library hires interns to assist with our special programs and events. Interns also help with Summer Reading Program registration and a variety of other library tasks.

The paid internship opportunity is open to all local high school students in grades 9th-12th. The employment program was started by our wonderful Friends of the San Juan Island Library as a way to promote introductory professional work experience. Our past interns come from a wide range of backgrounds—homeschool, private school, and public school. They have gone on to explore careers in library services, law, and computer sciences. We love having the interns work with us and look forward to another great summer of learning.

CHECK IT OUT! DRIVING-TESTS.ORG

Are you a teen looking forward to getting your driver's license? Find Driving-Tests.org on our website at www.sjlib.org under the online resources tab. Driving-Tests.org features all kinds of information about driving in Washington state. The site is easy to navigate for both English and Spanish language speakers. It's a great source for studying about your learner's permit and other driver's licensure. And best of all, it's free and includes downloadable PDFs of Washington Department of Licensing handbooks.

Adventures with Virtual Reality

Experience the sensation of being in outer space, climbing in Yosemite or touring the White House with Virtual Reality (VR). This summer the San Juan Island Library will host a series of VR workshops for teens. VR is an interactive computer-generated experience taking place in a simulated environment. Through a partnership with the Washington State Library and Oculus, Inc. we have two VR kits for the public to trial—an Oculus Rift and an Oculus Go.

A Universe of Stories - Summer Reading Program

This year's Summer Reading Program theme is A Universe of Stories. Join us as we celebrate our world and the great beyond. Think about past ancestral connections to galaxies far, far away. We'll explore them all - real and imagined. The Summer Reading Program is free and open to children, teens, and adults. Registration begins Thursday, June 13 with an after school kick-off party. For more information, please visit our website, www.sjlib.org or stop by the Library at 1010 Guard Street in Friday Harbor.

Wi Fi? Why not? WiFi Hotspots at the San Juan Island Library

The Library is launching a lending collection of WiFi Hotspots to make internet access available to islanders. People over the age of 18 can check out a hotspot device for three weeks to receive internet service via a cell tower. The program is free of charge, and is partially supported by a generous grant from the San Juan Island Community Foundation.

WiFi Hotspot

As people grow increasingly dependent on the internet for both work and recreation, providing the community with access to WiFi hotspots becomes more and more important. Educational programs, including those available for free through a library account, require internet access, and streaming video has become a regular pastime.

The experience of other libraries across the country has shown that lending hotspots is a valuable, popular, and growing need for rural communities like ours.

Please drop by the Library or call us at 360-378-2798 for more information.

Now accepting online payments!

The San Juan Island Library can now accept online payments for library charges through the Library website and catalog.

Only credit card payments for the full charged amount may be made at this time.

Should you wish to donate to the Library, a donation option will be coming in the future.

Please contact the Library for more information.

Fill out the library wordsearch and drop it into the Library before August 1 for a small prize!

It's Never a Dull Moment with Friends!

Spend a year with the Friends of the San Juan Island Library (FOL) and you will have found yourself supporting the institution you love - your local library. You will have helped fund and expand programs that make the Library an exciting and vital place in our community.

Membership donations make up a big part of our budget every year and our donor members are very generous with their support. We mentally hug each one of you when your new or renewal application shows up in the mail! In 2018, $14,795 of your generous contributions went to fund library programs. We're sure you've noticed that our library store Treasure Cove makes for a great shopping adventure when it opens at 11 am four times a week. With everything from books, media, jewelry, and small gifts, last year you supported it to the tune of nearly $10,000 toward the Friend's fundraising efforts. Your jewelry and small eclectic donations are welcomed as we resell or re-work them. Friends of the SJI Library also make an appearance at the Farmers' Market during the summer. Other fundraising events include a Mother's Day Raffle Basket and an old fashioned July 4th Cake Walk.

What are the Friends of the Library without a big book sale or two? Your generous book donations throughout the year allowed FOL to have two of these. We know that sometimes it can be hard to let go of your lovely book friends but when you do, we try to give each of them a warm and welcoming new home. Last year your participation in our summer and holiday sales supplied $7,700 to the FOL funding program.

Although library fundraising is the name of our game, we also do community outreach. We invited the community to celebrate spring and the growing season with Dancing Seeds Farm as our guest at the 2018 FOL Annual Meeting, and this year we joined forces with the Library for a trivia & games night. In October of every year the National Friends of Libraries Week gives us a good opportunity to plan community events throughout the week as well as kick off our membership drive for the following year. The 2018 Friends' week started with 'Let's Swap,' a fun Sunday afternoon book swap, with games and treats galore. The week culminated in 'A Very British Evening' with Jane Austen speaker Heidi Green followed by a lovely English High Tea.

So, you can see that your year with us has been a busy one - donating, volunteering, fundraising, event planning and being part of a fun-loving and energetic group called Friends of the San Juan Island Library!
